TADA Detenus in Gujarat

1146. SHRIMATI KAMLA SINHA : Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that in the State of Gujarat nearly 14,000 people booked under the Terrorist and Disruptive Activities (Prevention) Act are awaiting trial;

(b) whether it is a fact that Gujarat has witnessed secessionist or insurgent movement and over the years only two percent of TADA detenus were finally convicted; and

(c) if so, what is the validity or relevance of the application of TADA in a State like Gujarat?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI RAJESH PILOT) : (a) Yes Sir.

b) and (c) Even though no secessionist or insurgent movements have been witnessed in the State of Gujarat, the State has experienced substantial incsease in Terrorist activities in the recent past. Explosives and sophisticated arms have been smuggled into Gujarat in collussion with terrorists and anti-national elements, aided and abetted by Pak Intelligence agencies. Provisions of TADA have been invoked in the cases of seizure of illegal and sophisticated arms. Further, Gujarat is one of the sensitive States from communal angle and large scale communal disturbances have taken place periodically. It is true that the rate of conviction in TADA has been low in the State for variety of reasons.
